  - Type and version of your operating system

3. We may collect Anonymous Data or use third-party services for the information listed above, for example: web analytics services.

4. This Anonymous Data is not linked to Personal Data.

Why We Collect Information?

The Information is used for:

- Enforcement of this Policy,
- Sending you related information, including newsletters, special offers, confirmations, updates and security alerts via email,
- Delivering you the site and its functionality,
- Your interaction with the site,
- Analytical and statistical purposes,
- Your interaction with the site,
- Improvement and development of the site or our other services and products throughout the existence of the site.

How Long We Retain Information

1. We will keep your information for as long as you are a user and, thereafter, for no longer than is necessary for reporting and reconciliation purposes pursuant to legal requirements.

2. This Policy does not cover the use of cookies and other similar technologies by third-party individuals or companies. For example, we may use third-party analytics services to collect information about use of the site.

3. We do not control when or how third-party individuals or companies place cookies on your computer.

4. These cookies or other similar technologies may be used to track your activity on other websites and we have no control over these actions.

Your Consent

1. You expressly consent to our processing, collection, transfer, storage, disclosure and other uses of your information as described in this Policy and when you provide information to us through the site and/or accept this Policy.

2. In addition, through this use and interactions with the site you specifically consent to:

- The storage and transfer of information to locations of facilities owned by CryptoVerse and our service providers, and
- Our collection of information automatically and to our subsequent processing and using of information in accordance with this Policy.

Disclosure of Information

1. We may release the Information concerning your use of the site:

- To provide you with the services and functionality of the site,
- To prevent, detect, or otherwise address fraud, manipulation, spam, security or technical issues,
- To protect against abusive, irresponsible, or malicious use of the site,
- To protect the rights, safety, or property of users, or any other third parties,
- When we believe in good faith that such release is appropriate to comply with the applicable law, regulation, legal process or governmental request,
- To enforce this Policy or any agreement between you and us,
- In other ways described in this Policy.

2. We may share Personal Data only under any of the circumstances mentioned in this Policy.

3. We will not share any Personal Data provided by you except with service providers under contract who help with our business operations.

Business or Asset Transfer

In the event that we, a line of our business, or a substantial amount of our assets are transferred, sold or merged with another business, information may be one of the transferred assets to the new entity.

Security of Personal Data

1. We will take reasonable precautions to protect Personal Data from loss, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction.

2. We implement the following administrative, technical, and physical measures for the protection of Personal Data:
  - Administrative measures. Access to your Personal Data is restricted to authorized CryptoVerse personnel who have a legitimate need to access it based on their job descriptions. If third-party contractors process Personal Data on our behalf, similar requirements are imposed.

  - Technical measures. Personal Data is transmitted in encrypted format using SSL technology. We use up-to-date firewall protection and high-quality antivirus and anti-malware software.

  - Physical measures. We store Personal Data on our own servers, no third-party can have access to this data.

3. We do not guarantee that such techniques will prevent unauthorized access to information, including Personal Data that we store.

Modifications

We may modify or revise this Policy at any time by posting the amended Policy on the site. Please check the most current Policy.

Changing or Updating Your Personal Data

1. It is your obligation to advise us about any changes to your Personal Data.
2. Please contact us as soon as possible if there are any changes to your Personal Data or if you believe the Personal Data we hold about you is not accurate, complete or up-to-date so that we can update our records accordingly.

Privacy Related Inquiries

If, for any reason, you are concerned with the way that we may be using your Personal Data, or if you have questions about the privacy aspects of the site, please contact us at support@cryptoverse.ai.
